MUSIC & POETRY

This month we have two mixed-media performances of music and poetry.

The first is by a group called STICKY GEORGE and poet ADRIAN HENRI.

The group are a group in the sense that the Allegri Quartet are a group, in the sense that the Beatles were a quartet. They play a bewildering number of instruments in an astonishing number of styles.

The poet is one of the better known of the Liverpool poets, having appeared on television numerous times.

ADRIAN MITCHELL and POEM will be giving two performances.

Mr. Mitchell has given several readings for us in the past, and is well known for his work on television.

Poem are a two men and a girl group, who won the special prize for lyrics in the 1972 Melody Maker Folk/Rock Contest.

Nelson College of F.E. are putting on a very interesting evening's entertainment at their annexe Gawthorpe Hall, Padiham on November 3rd at 7.30 p.m. The AYRE CONSORT will play Renaissance music in this elegant Jacobean setting. The music, played on accurate reproductions of the original instruments, will bring to life some of the atmosphere of former days. Local poet IRVINE HUNT will also be there reading a selection of his latest poems. There are only 50 tickets available and at £1.30 including buffet supper and wine are a bargain. Get them from Roger Dyson at the College, Nelson 66411 ext. 25.

POETRY

This month's reading at Gawthorpe will be given by Peter Hoida, from Birkenhead and Libby Houston, from London. Libby is our first female poet and she actually knows where Padiham is, which isn't bad for a Londoner. They have worked together many times before and each has had poems published in both books and magazines.

MUSIC

OPERA FOR ALL's high quality performances of operas in English have become very popular in our area. This production of Donizetti's "The Daughter of the Regiment" should prove no exception.

THE SARTORI QUARTET are no strangers to Burnley. On this visit the Lancaster University based quartet will be playing:

Haydn Quartet in G major,
Opus 64, No.4
Purcell Fantasias in 4 parts
Rachmaninov Two Movements
Dvorjak Quartet in F Major,
Opus 93, 'The American'

Our regular chamber concert goes may be interested to know that the OLIN QUARTET will be playing in Whalley Parish Church on 2 November. The concert begins at 7.45 p.m. Tickets are 70p (including supper) and further details are available from Mr. Barber at Nelson College of F.E.

PACO PEÑA is well known throughout the mid-Pennine area, mainly through his performances with his Flamenco Puro group. On this occasion Paco, one of the world's greatest flamenco guitarists will be giving a solo recital.

THE BAND OF YORKSHIRE IMPERIAL METALS was British Open Champion. in 1971/72. We thus continue our policy of presenting only the best in brass.

BALLET

THE NORTHERN DANCE THEATRE will be performing their first full length ballet, Cinderella. Laverne Mayer's choreography of this traditional story has been set to an original score by Robin Stewart, which will be played by a fourteen piece orchestra.

THEATRE

THEATREMOBILE go on their second tour of the season with Oscar Wilde's famous comedy "The Importance of Being Earnest". Described as both "the most English of English plays" and "one of the funniest plays ever written" it is well worth seeing, even a second or a third time if you have already seen it on T.V.

EXHIBITIONS

This month's exhibition at the MPAA Gallery in Burnley is a very exciting one of paintings on the subject of motor racing. Gordon Humphries' paintings give a great impression of speed and power.

Our Artshop in Blackburn, meanwhile, has an exhibition of British tapestries and hangings. This exhibition comes direct from this year's Edinburgh International Festival.
