MUSIC

NORTHERN CHAMBER ORCHESTRA.

TODMORDEN TOWN HALL

Weds. 30th Sept. 7.30pm. Admission £6/£5 Concs./£2.50 Under 16's Orchestral music comes to Todmorden for an evening programme of Elgar, Mozart, Grieg and Haydn played by the renowned NCO. Unusual in that the orchestra has no conductor, the NCO will be taking to the studio on the day after this concert to record a cycle of CD's. A rare treat for lovers of orchestral music, the evening also presents an opportunity for 'first timers' to hear such popular favourites as the 'Holberg Suite' by Grieg and Elgar's Serenade for Strings.

JAZZ with the JOHN HELLIWELL QUINTET.

BLUE NOTE CLUB, TODMORDEN.

Thurs 15th Oct. 8pm.

Admission £4/£2.50 Concs.

John Helliwell is, perhaps, better known for his work with Supertramp. After eleven albums for that band John returns to the modern jazz fold with stirring improvisation and a solid line-up including Niki Iles on piano, Richard Iles on trumpet, Gary Culshaw on bass guitar and Eryl Roberts on drums.

Presented in association with Blue Note Club

THE LANCASHIRE CHAMBER ORCHESTRA present FROM STONE AGE TO SPACE AGE IN 400 YEARS OF MUSIC

ST. JOHNS CHURCH, ACCRINGTON. Sun. 18th Oct 3-5pm.

Admission £3/£2 Concs. (under 5's Free)

A family concert programme ranging from Baroque music through the Classical period of Mozart and Tchaikovsky to 20th Century compositions from Britten and Shostakovich, this musical tour through the centuries should delight both fans of the Lancashire Chamber Orchestra and newcomers to classical music. Above all, this an event for the whole family to enjoy as the afternoon's music shifts from 'Air on a G String' (Bach) to well known film and TV soundtracks like the 'Water Mill' signature tune to TV's 'The Secret Garden'.

FIESTA CLARINET QUARTET present A QUARTET OF CLARINETS

HAWORTH ART GALLERY, ACCRINGTON. Weds. 18th Nov. 7.30pm

Admission £4/£2.50 Concessions

Enjoy a programme of clarinet music in the beautiful surroundings of the Haworth Art Gallery with this renowned foursome.

In association with Live Music Now.

JAZZ with the BOBBY SHEW QUARTET.

BLUE NOTE CLUB, TODMORDEN.

Thurs. 19th Nov. 8pm. Admission £4/£2.50 Concessions

Powerhouse jazz led by the American trumpet maestro Bobby Shew. With a formidable CV that includes soundtrack work for films like 'Rocky' and 'A Star Is Born', stints with Woody Herman Band and the Tommy Dorsey Orchestra, Bobby is a consistently dazzling virtuoso of the horn. Expect nothing less than a high impact show as Bobby brings out the legendary 'Shewhorn'-a unique double trumpet device-and puts his swinging Northern trio through their paces.

Presented in association with Blue Note Club and Jazz Action

LIVE ENTERTAINMENT

FOLK with the Mc CALMANS

EDGE END HIGH SCHOOL, HIBSON RD. NELSON. Sat. 28th Nov. 8pm.

Tickets in advance £3/£2 Tickets on the night £4/£3

The Mc Calmans are well known in the folk world with a track record that includes nineteen albums, a Radio Two series and regular appearances on Scottish TV. With their own unique blend of Scottish humour and traditional and contemporary styles, the band comprises Derek Moffat, gifted singer and guitar player, Nick Keir, a talented singer/songwriter, while Ian Mc Calman provides the name for the group and does the driving. Support is from Stephen Quigg with an evocative and atmospheric set. Bar available.

A joint promotion with Burnley Folk Club.

COLNE ORCHESTRA SERIES

WORLD BEAT CLUB

ROYAL HOTEL, WATERFOOT, ROSSENDALE.

8pm' until Late

Admission £4.50/£3.50 Concs.

Welcome to the 'Worldbeat Club' and fortnightly dancefloor treats with a whirlwind of live sounds ranging from the African jump of TAXI PATA PATA to the greasy r'n'b of Mancunian rockers GAGS. The music is goodtime and rootsy, the style is strictly dance and the word is 'Worldbeat'.

TAXI PATA PATA Sat. 17th Oct.

Afro jivers with a high energy set of infectious dance tunes.

GRUPO PA'LANTE Sat. 31st Oct.

Steaming Latin rhythms and hot salsa from Afro-Cuban big band.

MICROGROOVE Sat. 14th Nov.

Hard funk madness including the rap talent of Angie Brown (Massive Attack).

GAGS Sun. 29th Nov.

Upfront r'n'b with a tough edge.

BIG TOWN PLAYBOYS Sat. 12th Dec.

Big band jump jive from the stars of Colne's 'R 'n' B Festival'.

Presented in association with Lancashire County Council Arts Unit and Jazz North West with support from North West Arts Board

DANCE

NORTHERN DANCE COMPANY

CIVIC THEATRE, OSWALDTWISTLE.

Thurs. 22nd Oct. 8pm

Admission £4/£2.50 Concs.

A welcome return for Northern Dance, one of the hits of the last Hyndburn Festival.

Three very different pieces make up tonight's programme of contemporary dance as the company offer up a taste of South American street life in 'En Las Calles', take us on a bizarre trip through a landscape of 'Cacti And Other Succulents' and deliver David Massingham's 'Carpentry'. Visually striking, always surprising, Northern Dance Company offer a rare treat for both fans of dance and newcomers to the art form.

THEATRE

NOT THE NATIONAL THEATRE

present TWO by Jim Cartwright

DRAMA STUDIO, ACCRINGTON AND ROSSENDALE COLLEGE, RAWTENSTALL.

13th Oct. 7.30pm

Admission £4/£2.50 Concs

Winner of the Manchester Evening News 'Best New Play Award' in 1989, Jim Cartwright's latest play is set in a Northern pub where the landlord and his wife conceal a strange secret. Hailed by the Sunday Times as 'Brilliantly, surrealistically and comically poetic' this, powerful production is given added zest by Not The National Theatre, a company whose patrons include Harold Pinter and Ian McKellen. A beery, bizarre and dramatic alternative to just another night at the pub. Presented in association with Accrington and Rossendale College and supported by North West Arts Board.

INTERPLAY THEATRE COMPANY

present MURDER MOST 'ORRIBLE

GREAT HARWOOD YOUTH AND COMMUNITY CENTRE, GREAT HARWOOD.

Wed 28th Oct. 7pm. Admission £3/£2 Concessions

Using four performers, a cast of thousands, a lot of unlikely props and Sniffer, the faithful 'ound who can sniff out crime at an 'undred paces, the scene is set for one of the most eccentric unsolved mysteries the world has ever witnessed. A fast paced show for all the family bursting with music, song, stories and comedy. Suitable for 11 years and older.

Supported by North West Arts Board.

EYEWITNESS THEATRE COMPANY

present FISH ON A BICYCLE. DRAMA STUDIO, ACCRINGTON AND ROSSENDALE COLLEGE, RAWTENSTALL.

Thurs. 12th Nov. 7.30pm. Admission £4/£2.50 Concs.

Four women on a train are suddenly transported into a surreal galaxy to save the planet Dacron in this wicked, wild and weird spoof musical.

'...Clever strongly acted stuff, lined with memorable melancholia and not a little wit': TIME OUT

In association with Accrington and Rossendale College and supported by North West Arts Board.

LIP SERVICE

present WITHERING LOOKS. CIVIC THEATRE, OSWALDTWISTLE
Wed. 25th Nov. 8pm. Admission £4/£2.50 Concs.

A cardboard parsonage, a mysterious neighbour in the shape of Mr Moorcock of Ravaged Heath House and wild moors form the backdrop to this irreverent version of the Bronte story.

'It's a joy...their potted version of Wuthering Heights is a comic classic...it's very, very funny': THE GUARDIAN

FILM CLUB

FILM CLUB

presented by Burnley Film Society

Burnley Film Society bring on the big screen with two powerful and hard hitting films to enliven those dark autumn nights.

BARTON FINK (1991 116 mins. Cert 15)

Directed by JOEL and ETHAN COEN

Tues 27th October 8pm

Barton Fink is a scriptwriter in trouble.

The problem? Writer's block, a deranged Hollywood producer to deal with and a hotel room from hell (why DO the walls keep sweating like that?). In typical Coen style BARTON FINK is a bleakly funny film, nightmarish, atmospheric and beautifully cinematic.

BOYZ N THE HOOD (1991 112 mins. Cert 18)

Directed by JOHN SINGLETON

Tues 24th November 8pm

Downtown Los Angeles is a war zone of drug abuse, gang battles, poverty and offhand brutality in SINGLETON'S action packed movie where three friends struggle to survive against the odds. In the shadow of the LA riots earlier this year, BOYZ is a definite must-see movie.

TUDOR ROOM, BURNLEY MECHANICS

All tickets £2.50/£1.50 Concs. Available from MPA.

BFS is a membership organisation.

FILMS

Two short films about two very different artists.

NELSON AND COLNE COLLEGE, LINDON ROAD CAMPUS, COLNE.

Tues 27th Oct. 7pm

Admission Free

LANDSCAPE FROM A DREAM (1978 30 mins.) Directed by Tristram Yowell.

A portrait of painter Paul Nash.

IMPRESSIONS OF MONET (1976 50 mins.) Directed by John Read.

Presented in association with Colne Art Group.

VISUAL ARTS

THE GALLERY DOWNSTAIRS

READY STEADY GO

until 31st October

Featuring work from some of the best known artists of the Sixties, this highly acclaimed South Bank Touring Show includes canvases from R.B Kitaj, David Hockney, Peter Blake and 'op artist' Bridget Riley. Vivid, colourful and, above all, still fresh after two decades, the show echoes the excitement and vitality of the 60's with its emerging pop culture.

Arriving in Burnley after a critically acclaimed tour 'Ready Steady Go' takes its name from the title of a TV pop music programme and readily conveys a spirit of the Sixties; its optimism, energy and feeling that anything is possible.

SCHOOLS WORKSHOPS

Mon.5th - Fri.9th October

A practical and lively days workshop introducing students to ideas of design, optical effects and collage through the Pop Art of 'Ready Steady Go'. Contact MPA for further details.

INSET TRAINING DAYS

Weds. 7th October (4.15pm -6.15pm). Weds. 14th October (4.15pm -6.15pm). This workshop, led by Amanda Phillips of Leeds City Art Gallery, offers teachers an opportunity to learn ways of working with students in relation to the requirements of the National Curriculum. Oct. 7th is for primary teachers while Oct. 14th is for secondary teachers. The fee is £8. Further information is available from Sheenagh or Julian on 21986

FREE TALK Sat. 17th October

Lancashire based artist and lecturer, Geoff Woodhead, will give a series of short talks during the day. After a brief introduction he will discuss and answer questions about individual works in the show.

GALLERY SHOWCASE

EMILY MYERS CERAMICS until 31st October

'The strength of my work lies in its simplicity', says Myers of her distinctive and bold ceramic works. I find my inspiration in metal objects, particularly ones which have been broken down by time.

JEWELLERY SHOP

JOLENE SMITH until 31st October

Jolene's jewellery has a strong African and tribal theme with simple yet elegant shapes a hallmark of her rings, brooches, earrings and studs.

AND CRAFTS

JEWELLERY SHOP

RUTH HILLIER

Texture and contrast feature strongly in the work of this contemporary jeweller with stripes, curves and subtle colour also important in this collection of tie-pins, brooches, cuff links and tie tacks.

CHRISTMAS CRAFTS

Molly Rathbone

Susan Evans

From Sat 7th November to Wed 23rd December.

Once again the gallery is transformed into an Aladdin's cave of treasures and surprises. Fashionable and delicately shimmering textiles and jewellery, fun pots and functional pots, wooden toys and automata-for young and old alike-glass, paintings and prints, provide a delightful collection of original and unique craftwork for you to enjoy. Whether browsing or choosing that unusual present for someone special, there's something to suit everyone in this annual craft showcase.

OUT AND ABOUT

ETCHINGS by FRANCES MORGAN

TOWN HALL, RAWTENSTALL. until 17th October

Local artist Frances Morgan's work features screenprints and etchings notable for their soft tonal effects and gentle rhythmic patterns of light and shade.

PENDLE IN PAINT

SILVERMAN HALL, NELSON. 14th - 17th October

Crafts add another dimension to an already well established Open Exhibition. There's the opportunity not only to enjoy the paintings on show but also to see demonstrations by established local craftworkers.

SPECIAL EVENTS

CHARIVARI

present A WAY OF LIFE

KELBROOK PARISH HALL Tues 20th Oct. 7.30pm. Admission £4/£2.50 Concessions
Pioneers in their field, Charivari are unique in the way they mix detailed research with photography, music and theatre. For their current show the company lived and worked amongst the people of North Yorkshire for six months collecting stories, anecdotes, traditions and views. From this wealth of material photographer Lizzie Coombes and writer Liz Humphrey Williams have created a highly entertaining and thought provoking play and photographic exhibition.

'A Way Of Life' offers a distinctive and honest insight into a rural community in the 90's made all the more lively by the ceilidh dance which will round off the evening.

Supported by North West Arts Board.
