THIRD PARTY PRODUCTIONS present HENRI DE TOULOUSE LAUTREC

The Studio, Accrington & Rossendale College
Wednesday 30 October 7.30pm
Tickets: £4.50/£3 concs

This extraordinary artist spent much of his time with and found his artistic inspiration in the low-life of Montmartre. Obsessed with parrots and women. An aristocrat whose father enjoyed riding horses dressed in a tutu. A dwarf. This newly devised, funny, tragic view of this life is performed by Third Party to include live music, dance and the odd drink! A welcome return for a company whose Shakespeare productions have been much enjoyed.

REJECTS REVENGE THEATRE COMPANY present 'PEASOUPER'

The Studio, Accrington & Rossendale College
Thursday 28 November 7.30pm
Tickets: £4.50/£3 concs

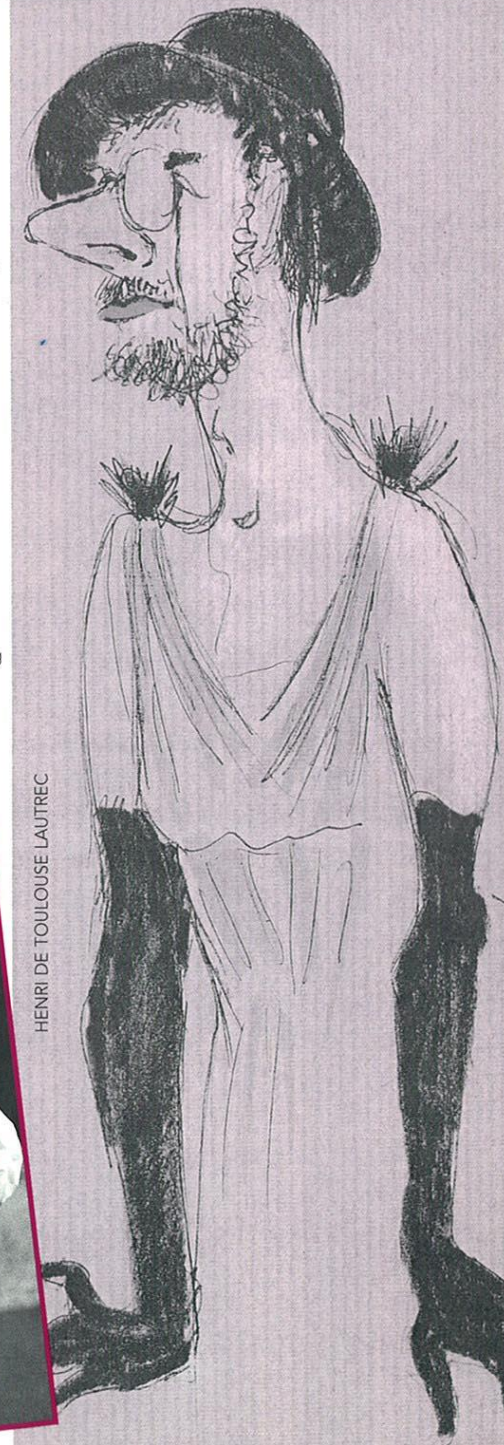

Rejects Revenge are one of the country's leading small-scale physical theatre companies. They present innovative, exciting and accessible theatre that appeals to all. Peasouper is the heart wrenching tale of one woman's love for one man and his refusal to shave his sideburns. This is an hilariously chaotic piece of dramatic mayhem and the overall effect is one of tremendous fun charged with boundless energy.

Supported by NWAB and presented in association with Accrington and Rossendale College

SIX OF THE BEST

ARTISTS INTO EDUCATION

Selected artists exhibit their own work in the Gallery and have available details of previous activities/residencies they have undertaken in schools (relevant to the National Curriculum).

A wide, exciting variety of work including textiles, paintings, collage and sculpture highlights the quality and ability of artists that work within education. The show will generate ideas for artwork with young people and will be particularly relevant for both parents and educationalists alike.

(Several workshops/presentations will take place during this exhibition. See under Activities for Schools)

'Be warned: it's a dub ceilidh dance floor fun collision...' City Life Magazine
This band's extraordinary music is so unusual and so addictive that it's hard to resist. Imagine if you can, traditional tunes played on fiddle or melodeon floating over a heavy dub reggae rhythm with funky punctuation from jazzy horns. Soaring over everything are sweet soul vocals...the result has been described as 'intercontinental ballistic dance music!'
