THE BURMA PLAY

Wednesday 24 September 7.30pm
Tickets £4.50/£3 concessions

In 1995 the Anglo-Burmese artist Chris Robinson accompanied his mother on a journey to her homeland. This play is inspired by his experiences.

A story of the continuing struggle of the people of Burma to attain rights and democratic freedoms, of Aung San Suu Kyi, the world's most famous prisoner of conscience and of SLORC, the sinister machine of state terror. Northern International Theatre Projects use storytelling, burlesque, ritual and physical theatre to conjure up the golden land - Burma - its peoples, its beauty and grace of spirit, its pain and laughter.

LEIKIN LOPPU DANCE THEATRE present AFTER EIGHT AND BEFORE NINE

Wednesday 15 October 7.30pm
Tickets £4.50/£3 concessions

Leikin Loppu produce simple but compelling and funny work. A slick witty and innovative blend of dance and physical theatre, their style is informed by clowning, complicity and mime. After Eight is everything you ever wanted to do in a restaurant, but never dared to. In a charming and funny scene, played to Stravinsky's Firebird, two characters meet over sausage casserole. Before Nine is a 'morning after' scene played to excerpts from Prokofiev's Cinderella. A couple shift through anticipation, frustrated desire and discomfort to a tragi-comic finale.

THE YORK WAITS

Thursday 11 December 7.30pm
Towneley Hall, Burnley
Tickets £9 Concessions £7

The York Waits have revived the town band as it was in its heyday around 1600 when the Lord Mayor would employ the city's own band of musicians to play on public occasions. Like their predecessors they play upon a 'Noyse' of shawms, ancestors of the oboe, and the characteristic instruments of waits before 1600, cornett, saggbutts, trumpets and lute, to name but a few. The York Waits create an authentic replica of bygone times with instruments, costumes and music, entertainment which is accessible to a wide audience. HORSE AND BAMBOO present THE LEGEND OF THE CREAKING FLOORBOARD

Village Hall, Kelbrook
Saturday 18 October 7.30pm
Tickets £4.50/£3 concessions

Using highly visual mask and puppetry techniques for which Horse and Bamboo are well-known, this new production is one of their most astonishing yet. A tale of two sisters whose lives are changed by an encounter with a stranger. The story has references to Orpheus and his descent into the Underworld to beg for his lover's soul. Combining powerful and original live music, it is part puppet play, part melodrama, part myth.

YEAR ROUND SOUND

SOUND IS ACCRINGTON'S FESTIVAL OF LOUD MUSIC AND EACH YEAR IT JUST GETS BIGGER AND BETTER.

Sound '97 achieved a record crowd of 6000 into Oak Hill Park to listen to the best music for miles around. Building on all this success the Sound Steering Group has been awarded some lottery cash towards a new programme of other Sound events.

Sound is not just for Summer! Put Friday 19 December in your diary for a Sound Christmas Special, watch out for full details.

The Sound Steering Group will be planning regular gigs as well as skills workshops for young musicians and projects in other media.

If you would like regular news about Year Round Sound, or if you are interested in contributing to the group, please send your name and address to our Freepost address (no stamp needed) Mid Pennine Arts, FREEPOST BU874, Burnley BB11 1BR. The SSG would love to hear from you.

ADRIAN MITCHELL - Poet and PETE MOSER - Musician

Public Hall, Haslingden
Friday 28 November 8pm
Tickets £4/£3 concessions

A startling, stirring night of poetry and rhythm. Adrian is one of Europe's widest read poets. Often controversial, his political poems have been sung at rallies and demonstrations around the globe, but many of his best loved poems are of his family, friends and animals. His performances are eclectic, often moving, invariably funny and always passionate. Adrian celebrates a Big Birthday year by bringing out a major new collection of poems, Heart on the Left, and taking it to favourite venues. Joining him in Haslingden is Pete Moser, long time collaborator with Adrian, a multi-instrumentalist, singer, writer, composer and arranger extraordinaire.

Pete is a former Musical Director with Welfare State International and is now responsible for More Music in Morecambe.

Write them yourself or listen to other people's, read them, see them performed, talk about them or celebrate them... however you want to get involved, there's something here for you.

TODMORDEN PHOTOGRAPHY

 Next year sees the Yorkshire and Humberside regional Year of Photography and the Electronic Image 1998. Mid Pennine Arts plans to mark the occasion with a very special community photography project in Todmorden. Through the medium of photography we want to involve local groups and individuals, anyone with a story to tell, to record their experiences of life in a changing town.

The first phase of the project will involve the creation of a Project Support Team. For this we are looking to recruit young people aged 16 - 25 years to involve themselves in all aspects of planning the project, including learning photography techniques and exhibition organisation. If you want to find out more then give us a call on 01282 421986 and have a chat with our Project Coordinator.

MPA PROJECTS

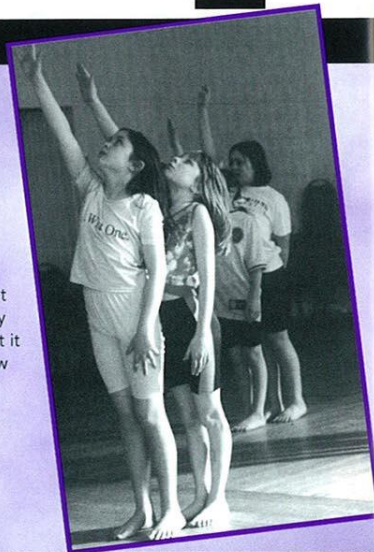

DAFT - Dance Access the Fast Track

Monday 27 - Friday 31 October

£5 for the week

Age group 12 - 18 years

Earlier this year we asked primary school children in Hyndburn to write their own short story on the theme of myth or legend. Now these stories are about to be transformed into a dance piece! Throughout October half term young people are invited to participate in this unique project. In just one week, with the help of the professionals, the story will be choreographed and rehearsed, the costumes and set devised and all this frenetic activity will culminate in a public performance on Friday evening in Rhyddings Park. An experience not to be missed....!? Have you got what it takes? If you think you can rise to the challenge then give us a call and find out how you can get involved.

RURAL ARTS IN EAST LANCASHIRE

Do you live in a village or smaller rural community? We are agents for a special Rural Arts Fund and can offer grants towards projects which:

- Involve a community or group working together
- Are creative and a new departure for your community
- Say something about your community or surroundings in the present or future rather than the past
- Have a majority of adult participants
- Have a lasting effect

ANY GROUP CAN APPLY!

Contact:
TRACY AT MID PENNINE ARTS ON 01282 421986 for further details or to discuss any ideas you may have.

FOR SCHOOLS

LIVE MUSIC NOW! WITH THE NOSSEK STRING QUARTET

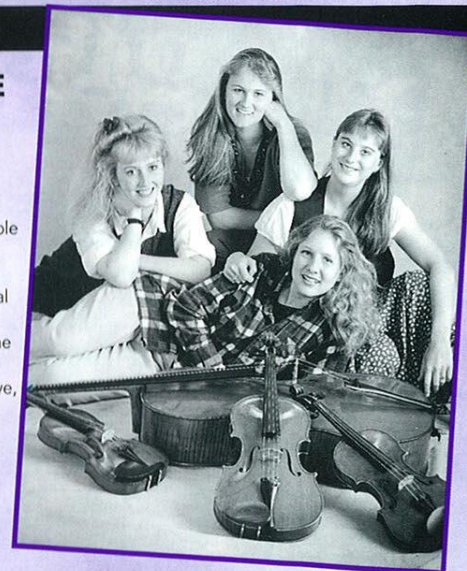

For Special Schools

Town Hall, Padiham

Thurs 9 Oct 10.30am and 1.30pm (Duration 1hour)

An interactive experience of live music for young people from special schools. Live Music Now! is Yehudi Menuhin's national scheme. It takes some of the brightest and best young musicians on the professional scene out of the concert hall and into the community, wherever a taste of real live music is most valuable. The Nossek String Quartet are four especially talented individuals who will give your group a vivid, imaginative, user friendly introduction to stringed instruments and an hour of great fun too!

To book your party contact Janet at MPA on 01282 421986

INSET

Thursday 30 October. 4 - 6pm

£10 per teacher, no experience necessary

An opportunity not to be missed to work with this exciting company from London who fuse different dance cultures, martial arts, drama and music to create a style all of their own. This training session is part of a three day residency based in Burnley which culminates with a performance of the company's latest production Dance Tech Warriors. The performance is on Saturday 1 November at Burnley Mechanics (contact Mechanics for ticket details)

TRAINING COURSE

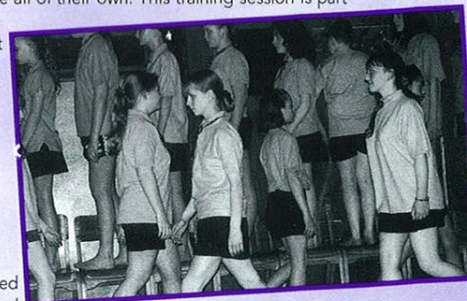

Spring Term

Training Course Feb-March '98

Sam Ukala: Nigerian Playwright and Director
The Old Liberal Club, Waterfoot

In partnership with MPA, Horse + Bamboo has designed this training course, based around their unique skills and techniques, for teachers of art and drama working throughout education. The course provides a chance to learn techniques from the visual theatre and will take participants through both physical and cultural exploration as well as extending their theatrical experience.

For full details please ring MPA on 01282 421986.

MANCHESTER CAMERATA IN EDUCATION

Mid Pennine are delighted to welcome back Camerata musicians to work in local schools. In Spring 1998 four rural schools from Pendle and Rossendale will have the chance to 'adopt' a Camerata musician for a series of 4 workshops. This will culminate in a concert in which all four schools perform and also enjoy a concert from the Camerata musicians involved. To complete the experience all groups will then be invited to the Camerata concert at Colne Municipal Hall on 12 February.

Cost £50 per school (Tickets to the concerts are FREE to all involved - transport is not provided)

N.B. This project is still dependent on the necessary funds being raised but interested schools should contact MPA on 01282 421986.
