SUN 25TH JAN

PRISM

Inspired particularly by folk music of England, Ireland and America, this talented trio combines violin, vocals, Celtic Harp, harmonica, guitar and bouzouki. From the hushed calm of a slow air to the feet-tapping energy excited by jigs, reels and other dance rhythms, no audience can fail to be absorbed by Prism's delightful performance. A wonderful programme to start the New Year.

SUN 22ND FEB

AD LIB

What music comes to mind when you think of the clarinet? Jazz, maybe, or something classical? Ad Lib have other ideas! They play clarinets like you've never heard them before. Incorporating folk music and contemporary work, including their own compositions, Ad Lib's programme brings music from around the world and from different moments in history. Be prepared for some surprises.

Ad Lib are members of the Live Music Now! scheme.

SUN 22ND MARCH

MANCHESTER SANGEET ACADEMY

The final concert provides an introduction to the instruments and musical styles of South Asia. Members of Sangeet Academy will demonstrate vocal techniques, the various rhythms and effects achieved with the tabla, the special sound of the harmonium and much more. Learn about the cultures of the South Asian continent. Who knows how the season might end? We'll b™e clamouring for more!

MID PENNINE GALLERY

MARCH 28 TO APRIL 25

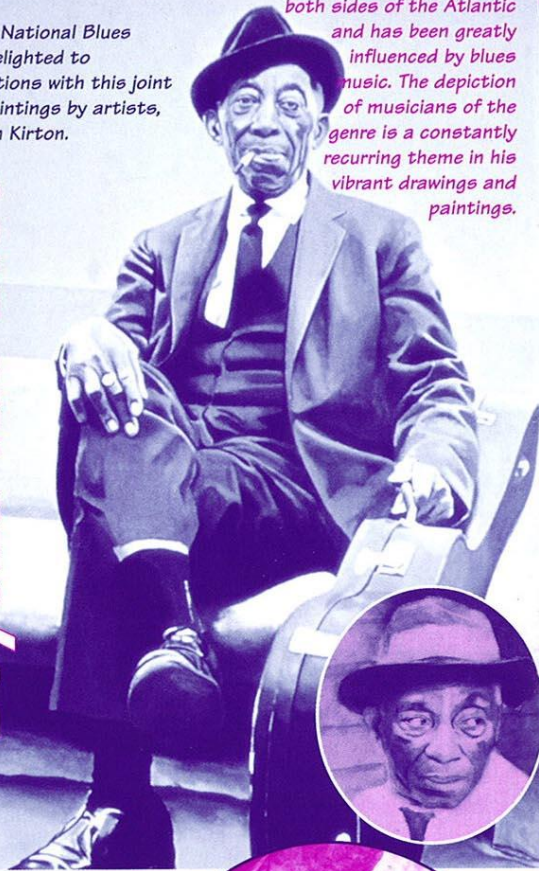

To celebrate The 10th Burnley National Blues Festival, Mid Pennine are delighted to contribute to the celebrations with this joint exhibition of figurative paintings by artists, Lesley Young and Malcolm Kirton.

Lesley's paintings may be found in public collections throughout the North including Manchester City Art Galleries and the Grundy Museum, Blackpool. Her work is based upon the figure, drawing upon people the artist knows including friends and family as well as those who have influenced her artistically, such as writers and musicians.

Beyond the Blue

Malcolm has worked on both sides of the Atlantic and has been greatly influenced by blues music. The depiction of musicians of the genre is a constantly recurring theme in his vibrant drawings and paintings.

PROJECTS

TODMORDEN PHOTOGRAPHY

In 1998 it is Yorkshire and Humberside's Year of Photography and the Electronic Image. Mid Pennine Arts are marking the occasion with a special community photography project based in Todmorden. We need you to make this project a success! Through the medium of photography we want to involve local groups and individuals, anyone with a story to tell to record their experience of life in a changing town.

In Phase One we are looking to recruit young people between the ages of 16 and 25 years to be part of a Project Support Team.

If you live in the Todmorden area and would like to be involved in all aspects of planning the project, including learning photography techniques and exhibition organisation then ring Nick for a chat on 01282 421986.
